BIBLIOGRAPHY:

1. Textbook on Criminology, Katherine S. Williams, Oxford University Press, 2008

2. Friedman: Law In a Changing Society (1951), p. 186

3. Law Commission of India, 29th Report, (1966)

4. Andrew Weissmann with David Newmann, 'Rethinking Criminal Corporate Liability' published in the 'Indiana Journal of Law' Vol. 82: 411, page 411-451

5. V. S. Khanna: Article on Corporate Criminal Liability: What purpose does it sere? Published in Harvard Law Review (Vol.109) May, 1996, pp-1477-1534.

6. Jennifer Arlen: 'Evolution of Corporate Criminal Liability: Implications for Managers', published in the edited book on 'Leadership and Governance from the Inside Outside' of the New York Univ. Law School.

7. Shri Ambica Mills Ltd. V. The Textile Labour Association, Ahmedabad, AIR 1973 SC 1081

8. Dictionary of Business' 'Economists Association, (2006).

9. Adler, Mueller and Laufer, ' Criminal Justice, an introduction', Fifth Edition, 2009.

10. Adler, Mueller and Laufer : 'Criminal Justice: An introduction' McGraw Hill, 2009.

11. Textbook on Criminology, Katherine S. Williams, Oxford University Press, 2008

12. Friedman: Law In a Changing Society (1951), p. 186

13. Law Commission of India, 29th Report, (1966)

14. Andrew Weissmann with David Newmann, 'Rethinking Criminal Corporate Liability' published in the 'Indiana Journal of Law' Vol. 82: 411, page 411-451

15. V. S. Khanna: Article on Corporate Criminal Liability: What purpose does it sere? Published in Harvard Law Review (Vol.109) May, 1996, pp-1477-1534

16. Jennifer Arlen: ‘Evolution of Corporate Criminal Liability: Implications for Managers’, published in the edited book on ‘Leadership and Governance from the Inside Outside’ of the New York Univ. Law School.